

Media Release
February 5, 2024

Pacific Opera Victoria Names Dr. Kevin Hall to Board of Directors

Victoria, BC –Pacific Opera Victoria is pleased to announce the election of Dr. Kevin Hall to their Board of Directors.

Dr. Kevin Hall, BSc, MSc, PhD, FCAE, FCSSE is a Pacific Opera Victoria subscriber and has been a board member of over 30 organizations ranging from arts and culture to high performance computing. Currently President and Vice-Chancellor of the University of Victoria, Dr. Hall is an innovative academic leader and civil engineer known for his strong commitment to sustainability, innovation, community engagement, and unwavering belief in equitable access to education, and equity, diversity and inclusion.

“Kevin brings vision and entrepreneurial thinking to Pacific Opera, as well as significant local, national and international connections,” said Pacific Opera Board President, Margot McLaren Moore. “Furthermore, his appointment strengthens our relationship with the students, faculty and staff at UVic and we are looking forward to bringing more opera to the university community.”

At the recent Pacific Opera AGM, the organization named their first Board Advisory Committee, the members are: Jane Butler McGregor, Evan Hazell, Carey Newman and Heather Raven.

About the Pacific Opera Victoria Board of Directors

Pacific Opera is governed by a committed board of directors who advance the company’s mission through budget approval, oversight, and risk management; work on board committees and task forces; support for fundraising and donor stewardship; and ambassadorship and advocacy efforts to promote the arts, develop community collaborations, and welcome patrons and the wider community into the world of opera.

-30-

Media enquiries: Sandra Hudson 250-216-1380 sandra@sandrahudsoncomm.com