Searching for our young performers for Pacific Opera Victoria's upcoming production!

Pacific Opera Victoria is holding auditions for our April 2027 production of Mozart's opera The Magic Flute.

We are searching for three child performers for the roles of the three spirits, sung in German, and a supernumerary (non-singing) child performer. The child performer will have the opportunity to work with extraordinary professional artists, in collaboration with the Victoria Symphony at the Royal Theatre in Victoria.

We are looking for someone who:

- Has experience performing onstage
- Has facility in memorizing music, words and movement/stage direction
- Has experience singing solo repertoire
- Is passionate about music, performing and storytelling

All genders are encouraged to apply.

If this sounds like you, please fill out a form here!

For the audition, interested performers should prepare the following:

- One song of their choice to sing, ideally classical. Art songs, folk songs, lieder, Melodie, spirituals are welcome.
- An excerpt of The Magic Flute, found here. You can choose to audition for either of the spirits.

A pianist will be provided for the auditions, but you were welcome to bring your own.

Interested performers will also be considered for a supernumerary (non-singing) role in this production.

Auditions will be held at the Pacific Opera Victoria's Baumann center (925 Balmoral Rd.) on December 14, 2026.

Rehearsals begin in March with performances April 2-10, 2027 at the Royal Theatre in Victoria.
